"Let my beloved come to His Garden"

Our lives are intended by God to become His Secret Garden.

"Let my beloved come to His garden and eat its choicest fruits."

As God's garden your life will produce the fruit God intends.

"Awake, O north wind, and come, O south wind! Blow upon my garden, let its spices flow."

If the fruit from God's garden is not diffused it is the same as if it is not there.

Let my beloved come to his garden, and eat its choicest fruits.

More than anything else a believer wants the company of Christ and His enjoyment of our lives.
