

Today: The Gospel is True Blue
Text: Romans 1:16-17
Series: The Gospel's Primary Colors
Speaker: Pastor Kevin

Series: There are important themes in Romans that seem to relate to a primary color.

True Blue: The final result of the Gospel will not produce personal shame (though it may bring public shaming) but loyalty to Jesus expressed in crazy love and passionate sharing.

Romans 1:16-17
~~~~~

Embarrassing moments...I had more than a few. How about you?

Feeling shame & being shamed, a different animal...you can't laugh it off later.

Historical illustrations...

Why does Paul begin his Magnus Opus with a negative in reference to the gospel?

How might the gospel of Jesus Christ cause a person to feel shame at first OR how might the gospel cause a culture to resort to public shaming of Christ-followers?

1. A person: Romans 6:16-23
2. A culture: II Timothy 1:3-14; with a current example from our culture

What is the final result of the gospel? God painting with you a masterpiece in primary colors called

_____:

1. Crazy love (N.T. Wright)
2. Passionate sharing (Charles Spurgeon)

Masterpieces are meant to be displayed!
